12. Criminal Convictions

A criminal conviction will not necessarily be a bar to recruitment and applicants will be considered on their merits. However for certain jobs it is unlawful for Local Authorities to recruit people with certain convictions hence the need for the following information.

| | | |
|---|-----|--|
| Have you ever been convicted of any criminal offence? | Yes | |
| | No | |

If yes, please specify date of conviction, court, nature of offence and sentence imposed. These can be placed in a sealed envelope and returned with your application.

Your attention is drawn to the fact that under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 you may be entitled to answer 'No' to this question even if you have, in the past, been subjected to criminal proceedings resulting in conviction(s). However, certain types of employment, especially those with access to children, are excluded under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exemptions) 1975, from the protection of the Act. It is therefore suggested that you take appropriate advice if you are in any doubt as to the correct answer to give.

For applications for certain jobs the council will require a disclosure from the Disclosure and Barring Service. This will apply to successful candidates only. Information about whether a disclosure will be required will be provided in the pack accompanying this form.

13. Asylum and Immigration Act 1996

It is an offence to employ a person subject to immigration control unless he / she is entitled to be employed in the United Kingdom. A person subject to immigration control is someone who requires leave to enter or remain in the United Kingdom.

This does not apply to British citizens, Irish citizens, Commonwealth citizens with the right of abode in the United Kingdom, citizens of any countries in the European Economic Area / Economic Union, Asylum seekers with written permission to work, people appealing against refusal of an application for further permission to stay, student nurses admitted under immigration rules, family members, irrespective of nationality, of non British EEA nationals providing the EEA national is lawfully residing in the UK and if the family member is a spouse, the marriage has not ended.

Prior to a confirmed offer of appointment, applicants will be required to produce original documentation to confirm that they are legally able to work in the United Kingdom.

| | | |
|---|-----|--|
| I confirm that I am entitled to be employed in the United Kingdom | Yes | |
| | No | |

14. Relationships

If you are the parent, grandparent, partner, child, stepchild, adopted child, grandchild, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, nephew, niece of an existing councillor or officer of the council or of the partner or such persons, please provide the name of that person and the nature of the relationship below.

15. Disqualification

The council will disqualify any applicant who directly or indirectly seeks the support of any councillor or officer for any appointment with the council. This does not preclude a councillor from giving a written reference for a candidate.

16. Data Protection

Because we have a duty to protect the public funds we handle, we might need to use the information you have provided on this form to prevent and detect fraud. We may also share this information for the same purposes with other organisations which handle public funds.

Your personal data will be processed in accordance with the Council's Privacy Notice which is enclosed. You are asked to complete the Personal Information Sheet which is attached, so as to help the Council monitor its compliance with equality and diversity obligations, although you are not obliged to complete this in order to be considered for this particular job, and the details will not be considered as part of your application. Any information that you provide is therefore with your consent.

17. Confirmation of Details

The information you have provided should be complete and correct. Falsification of information on the form will result in your application not being pursued or your contract being terminated if you have already been appointed to the job.

I confirm that the details in this application are correct and complete. I agree that the data provided can be used as described in Section 16 above.

Privacy Notice – Craven District Council information for job applicants

Craven District Council is a data controller in accordance with the Data Protection Act, and this notice tells you about the information that the Council collects from you, what we do with it, and who it might be shared with.

What information do we collect from you?

When you apply for employment with the Council, as well as your name, we will ask you for your contact details including home, email addresses and telephone number. You will also be asked to provide details of previous employment and experience, academic qualifications, references, and details of past unspent offences. You will be asked to provide evidence of identity at some stage in the process. You will also be asked to provide equal opportunities monitoring information, but you are not obliged to provide this as a condition of your application.

Why do we collect this information?

These details will be requested so as to process your application smoothly, to assess your suitability for the post that you are applying for, and to satisfy the Council's obligations arising from UK employment and equality law.

Who might we share this information with?

The Council will not share any of the information that it holds about you with any third party, unless you have given your written consent, or if otherwise this is permitted by law.

What do we do with your information?

The information that you have provided will be held by the Council and will only be accessed by authorised Council employees. We will only use the information that you have provided for the purpose of your job application and will not use it for any other Council purpose, unless we have your consent, or this is provided by law. The equality monitoring information that you provide will be separated from your job application and anonymised.

How long do we keep hold of your information?

If you are successful in your application, the Council will keep hold of your information for as long as you are employed by the Council, and for up to six years after your employment has ceased. If you are unsuccessful, the Council will retain this information for up to a year after the application process has been completed.

How can I access the information you hold about me?

By making a Subject Access Request and going onto the Council's website at <https://www.cravenc.gov.uk/data-and-transparency/data-protection-act/> or writing to the Data Protection Officer, Craven District Council, First Floor, Belle Vue Square, Broughton Road, Skipton, BD23 1FJ. You also have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office as it can investigate compliance with data protection law: www.ico.org.uk
