Education • Foundation • Trust

St Paul's Way Trust School is a highly successful Ofsted Outstanding 'Through School' and 'National Teaching School'. Working closely with our university trust partners – Queen Mary University, King's College, Warwick University, University of Greenwich, University College London and the University of East London – we offer a broad and balanced curriculum for our students.

The Trustees and Governors are seeking to appoint well-qualified and talented Academic Coaches in a range of subjects, to support students to progress in their education.

The successful candidate will have a strong academic background, a professional and approachable manner to support our students reach their full potential, and a desire to explore the possibility of a career in teaching.

Key Tasks will include:

- To provide ongoing support for students and staff, teachers and the school in order to raise standards of achievement for targeted students across all Key Stages
- To be accountable for progress of allocated students
- To plan and deliver sessions aimed to develop students' revision and organisation

- To encourage students to become independent, to ensure their safety and welfare and support the inclusion of students in all aspects of school life

Our exciting time of expansion as St Paul's Way Trust School continues as the lead school within the 'University Schools Trust'. Our award winning new building is situated in the heart of East London. Professor Brian Cox OBE is our Patron.

Please note, we do not accept CVs alone.
